

Rev youth games

youth size: large

Battleships

Split your group into two teams. Set up the room with a divider down the middle and play life size battleship. Have people lie down on the floor like battleships and use a beach ball as a bomb. One person from each group is designated the thrower. If the ball hits someone on the full, their ship sinks. The object of the game is to knock out all ships from the opposing team.